Dear Colleagues,

This note is to let you know that I have accepted a position with Kentucky Wesleyan College in Owensboro, Kentucky, as Executive Vice President for External Relations. My duties will begin January 2, 2006. It's difficult to express my feelings in writing, because I'm very happy and very sad, all at the same time!

This new opportunity takes me back to my home community and to the college where I graduated, along with my husband Fred, in 1970. It also allows me to work directly with students, which is always fun and rewarding.

One thing will never change--my passion for adult education. Thanks for allowing me to serve you these past nine years. It has been a joy. Working together, we have made significant strides to help thousands of adults achieve their goals and dreams, leading to higher educational attainment and better jobs. Here's to adult education!
